Farmingville, NY - On January 8, Supervisor Ed Romaine held his first public Question and Answer Session in the second floor media room at Town Hall. These sessions are scheduled before each board meeting, starting at 4:30 pm and lasting until 4:50 pm. Index cards will be available at 4:15 pm for anyone to fill out who has a question for the Supervisor. Residents must provide their name, address, phone number and e-mail on the card.

Supervisor Romaine said, "The new Q and A session will give people the opportunity to ask me whatever questions they have in a less restrictive setting. The first session went very well and it was great to spend some time with residents and help them get answers on a number of issues. I thank all those who came out early to participate and I look forward to doing this at 4:30 before every Town Board meeting in the Media Room which is right next to the auditorium."
